Numb. 285.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From SATURDAY July 14. to THURSDAY July 19, 1739.

LONDON, April 21.

A Copy of the Congratulatory Addreſs preſented to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, on Wedneſday laſt at Norfolk Houſe, by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, on Account of Prince EDWARD's Birth.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſſes,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highneſſes, on the Birth of another Prince.

Every ſuch Encreaſe of the Royal Family we conſider as an additional Security to ourſelves, in full Confidence that all your illuſtrious Progeny will be form'd by the Inſtructions and Example of your Royal Highneſſes, to be the Glory and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, by continuing to us all the invaluable Bleſſings which ariſe from Liberty at Home, and the Support of our National Character Abroad.

His Royal Highneſs's Anſwer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I And the Princeſs are very thankful for this new Inſtance of your Duty to the King, and of your Regard to us. My Children will, I hope, one Day, deſerve a Share of that Affection you always have ſhewn to the Family; and it ſhall be my Care early to inſtill into them a Love for the Laws and Liberties of that Country they have the Happineſs to be born in. The City may always depend on my good Wiſhes for its Proſperity, and Welfare of its Trade.

April 24. Sir Robert Walpole continues greatly indiſpos'd at his Houſe in Downing-Street, Weſtminſter; two Perſons ſit up with him every Night.

There is Advice from Gibraltar that Rear Admiral Haddock, with the Squadron under his Command, is ſail'd to the Coaſt of Barbary.

April 26. We hear that in a late merry Converſation of Noblemen, it was asked whether the Piers of Weſtminſter-Bridge were to be made of Stone or Wood; to which a certain witty Earl anſwer'd, of Stone, for that we had Wooden Piers enough already.

Yeſterday the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole was much better, but is adviſ'd by his Phyſicians not to go abroad yet.

His Grace the Duke of Marlborough's Regiment of Foot is order'd home from the Leeward Iſlands, and is to be replaced by another Regiment from Ireland.

The Diſcourſe ſtill continues that a Fleet of Britiſh Men of War will ſhortly be ſent to the Baltick, by Way of Obſervation.—What! ſhall we never have done with our Raree-Shews?

They write from Amſterdam, that how ardently ſoever the Members of the Government labour to bring about the Renewal of the Treaty of Commerce with France, upon eaſier Conditions than thoſe contain'd in the Plan drawn up at Paris, and lately deliver'd drawn up at Paris, and lately deliver'd to them by the Marquess de Fenelon; yet it's believ'd, that the Court of France, in its present powerful State, will hardly be prevail'd upon to abate of the Demand that it has made of paying no more Duties for French Goods imported into the Republick, than the Merchandizes of Holland pay when carried into France.

Paris, April 20.

Several Men of War are fitting up in the Ports of the Kingdom; and 'tis reported that a Squadron will be sent into the Baltick, under the Command of Vice-Admiral d'Antin: People assign various Reasons for sending this Squadron. The Marquess de Vaugrenant having desir'd to be excus'd from going Embassador to the Court of Russia, it is said the King will appoint the Marquess de la Chetardie to go in his stead The proclaiming of Peace is again put off; 'tis said on Account of two Couriers which are daily expected, the one from the Court of Spain, and the other from that of Turin.

April 24. The Court is much employ'd about the Means of causing the Commerce of this Kingdom to flourish; the Cardinal is often in Conference upon this Subject with the Ministers in that Branch.

Edinburgh, April 19.

We have very dismal Accounts from several Ports along the North Coasts; that the Storm on Sunday was Se'nnight raged with an extraordinary Violence, and had fatal Effects in many Places, several Vessels being lost, and a great many perish'd; that the Sea had beat so strongly in the Harbour of Portsoy, that the Pier was almost entirely demolish'd, and the Entrance so choak'd up that scarce a Boat could get in.
